Winner of the 2024 Avery Fisher Career Grant, Korean-American violinist Julian Rhee rose to international prominence following his prize-winning performances at the 2024 Queen Elisabeth International Violin Competition and Silver Medal at the 11th Quadrennial International Violin Competition of Indianapolis. He has appeared with orchestras including the Stuttgart KammerOrchester, Pacific Symphony, Oregon Symphony, Milwaukee Symphony, Calgary Philharmonic, Belgian National Orchestra, Antwerp Symphony, Indianapolis Symphony, Pittsburgh Symphony, and San Diego Symphony. Highlights of the 2026-2027 season include debuts with the Gürzenich-Orchester and Andrés Orozco-Estrada, La Orquesta Clásica Santa Cecilia and Daniel Raiskin, Orchestre National Bordeaux Aquitaine and Joseph, Swensen, and returns to the Richmond and Milwaukee Symphony Orchestras. Julian is a member of Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center's Bowers Program, is the recipient of the 1699 "Lady Tennant" Antonio Stradivari violin and a Dominique Peccatte bow on extended loan through the Mary B. Galvin Foundation and the Stradivari Society.